From clue [A]:
Holland won number of matches equal to half the number of matches tied.
Since total number of matches played by each country is 6, therefore there are two possibilities:
(i) Holland won 1match, tied 2 matches, and lost 3 matches.
(ii) Holland won 2 matches and tied 2 matches.
But Holland earned 8 points; therefore, case (i) is not possible.
Then case (ii) is true – Holland won 2 matches, tied 4 matches, and lost no match……..[a]

Since India earned 10 points, and total number of matches played by each country is 6, there are two possibilities:
(iii) India won 5 matches and lost 1 match.
(iv) India won 4 matches and tied 2 matches.
Similarly Argentina either 'won 5 matches & lost 1 match', OR it won 4 matches & tied 2 matches.
Assuming case (iii) as true: Holland lost no match; therefore India v/s Holland match was won by Holland. Then all other matches were won by India i.e. India v/s Argentina match was won by India.
Then Argentina would have won all other matches; which is not possible in case of Holland v/s Argentina match, as Holland did not lose any match.
Similarly Argentina didn't win 5 matches & lost 1 match.
Hence case (iv) is true. India & Argentina – each won 4 matches & tied 2 matches……[b]

From [a] & [b]:
India v/s Argentina match was tied.
India v/s Holland match was tied.
Holland v/s Argentina match was tied.
Then all other matches were won by India & Argentina……[c]

From clue [A] & [B]:
Australia had no match tied against any country. And Holland lost no match against any country.
Therefore Holland v/s Australia match was won by Holland.
Also from [c], India v/s Australia match was won by India; and Argentina v/s Australia match was won by Argentina.

From clue [C]:
Kenya defeated Russia, and it earned total 2 points; hence Kenya lost all other matches. Which mean Holland v/s Kenya match was won by Holland.
Now, we know that Holland won matches against Australia and Holland, hence from [a], Holland tied all other matches.
Then Malaysia won against Kenya, tied against Holland, thus earning 3 points, lost all other matches.
Therefore Russia won against Malaysia, tied against Holland, and earning 3 points, lost all other matches.
Hence Russia lost against Australia.
Tabulating above results:
